

EXPANDING GRAZING
HORIZONS
TUCSON, ARIZONA | 2024

9th National Grazing Lands Conference Trade Show

Showcase your latest innovations, products, and information to hundreds of grazing land managers.

Grazing lands make up more than a quarter of all private land acres and 55 million tribal land acres in the United States. More than 22,000 public land ranchers maintain 250 million acres of U.S. public lands.

The 9th National Grazing Lands Conference (9NGLC) – Expanding Grazing Horizons – serves as a venue for experts and practitioners in the field of grazing management to:

December 4-6, 2024

El Conquistador Tucson,
A Hilton Resort

10000 North Oracle Rd.

Tucson, Arizona 85704

Share innovative ideas and best practices.

Connect and renew bonds with producers, partners, and other stakeholders across the nation.

Progress toward the common goal of caring for and sustaining grazing lands.

During the three days in Tucson, attendees can expect to:

- Build community with like-minded producers
- Learn the latest in scientific and applied research
- Identify practical applications for building partnerships to support sustainable grazing management

ABOUT THE Trade Show
